

In addition to providing information, advice and signposting to NHS and social care services, Healthwatch Kingston plans to work on these areas together in 2023–24:

1. NHS and social care transformation:

- a. Continue to monitor the commissioning, provision and transformation of NHS and Social Care in Kingston and the South West London Integrated Care System.

2. Health inequalities:

- a. Continue to monitor health inequalities, in particular the health and care needs of women, neurodiverse people, and people with long term medical conditions.

3. Learning Disability and Autism:

- a. Continue to support meaningful engagement with local people with a learning disability in the work of HW Kingston, including Enter and View training.
- b. Continue to provide chair and administrative support for the 'Kingston All Ages Learning Disability Partnership Board'.

4. Mental Health:

- a. Continue to provide chair and administrative support for the 'Kingston Mental Health and Wellbeing Group'.
- b. Provide the independent evaluation of the South West London Community Mental Health Transformation Programme in Kingston.

5. Young People:

- a. Continue to support Youth Out Loud! (YOL!) to review health and care services (in partnership with other stakeholders).
- b. Continue to support delivery (with other partners) of the Digital Youth Project to add to the series of short health and care films and podcasts by young people for young people.
- c. Continue to support YOL! to develop its online and social media.

6. Safeguarding:

- a. Continue membership of the Kingston Safeguarding Adults Board.
- b. Continue to deliver the Kingston Making Safeguarding Personal project.
- c. Continue support for the London Safeguarding Adults Board, London Safeguarding Voices and Conference Planning Groups to ensure people with lived experience of safeguarding are integral to safeguarding systems and processes across London.
